Citizen Police Academy Graduation

The Columbus Division of Police is proud to announce one of the most diverse classes with the spring 2017 Citizen Police Academy!

30 men and women including New American, Somali, Eastern European and hearing-impaired, will take part in the graduation ceremony tomorrow, Saturday, May 27, 2017 at 10am, at the James G. Jackson Columbus Police Academy.

The Citizen Police Academy is a free 12-week community education program intended to build lasting relationships between program participants and the Columbus Division of Police, with the ultimate goal of reducing crime and achieving the best police service in the Columbus community. The program gives people an inside look at the values, philosophies, and operations of the Division, while at the same time serving as an open forum for questions, discussion and the exchange of ideas.

The fall 2017 Citizen Police Academy is tentatively scheduled to start August 24, 2017.
